

TEXAS COURT OF APPEALS, THIRD DISTRICT, AT AUSTIN

JUDGMENT RENDERED JULY 3, 2020

NO. 03-18-00759-CR

Jessie Lee Brooks, Jr., Appellant

v.

The State of Texas, Appellee

APPEAL FROM THE 20TH DISTRICT COURT OF MILAM COUNTY
BEFORE JUSTICES GOODWIN, BAKER, AND KELLY
REVERSED AND ACQUITTAL RENDERED -- OPINION BY JUSTICE KELLY

This is an appeal from the judgment of conviction entered by the trial court. Having reviewed the record and the parties' arguments, the Court holds that there was reversible error in the judgment. Therefore, the Court reverses the trial court's judgment of conviction and renders judgment that appellant is not guilty of the offense as charged in the indictment. Appellant is acquitted and discharged from all further liability for the offense as charged in the indictment. The State shall pay all costs relating to this appeal, both in this Court and in the court below.
